

ANNEX 3: Draft Work Programme

Māori Partnership Commitment Activity	Description What does this look like?	Target Audience Who is this for?	Outcome What's in it for the target audience?	Māori Partnership Commitment What is the opportunity to contribute?
1. Indigenous Economic Inclusion Strategy and Work Programme	Advancing Valuing Indigenous Economies beyond SCE Project 1: Policy Dialogue & Report into another Project and ensuring Indigenous economic inclusion is reflected in Leaders statement and Implementation Plan.	APEC economies	APEC economies increase their level of support and commitment to Indigenous work within APEC and establish an ongoing work programme and APEC Indigenous caucus to support it	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Contribute ideas to form, function and scope of a second Project on Valuing Indigenous Economies</li> <li>2. Recommend speakers and organisations to profile and engage in APEC meetings events</li> <li>3. Provide advice on strategy and plan to ensure ongoing visibility of Indigenous issues beyond New Zealand's host year.</li> </ol>
2. Indigenous People's Economic Cooperation Arrangement (IPECA)	An adjacent stream of work that seeks to negotiate an Indigenous collaboration arrangement	APEC economies who opt in	A mechanism is negotiated and signed to facilitate greater Indigenous and trade co-operation amongst APEC economies	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>4. Input into elements paper, negotiating text and negotiations</li> <li>5. Participate in Signing Ceremony</li> <li>6. Engage with Indigenous Peoples in other economies on IPECA.</li> </ol>
3. Digital content	Up to five Māori digital experiences to showcase commerce, culture and indigeneity	Delegates, international & domestic media	Māori showcase their cultural, digital and creative capabilities and delegates experience culturally inclusive approaches to digital diplomacy	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>7. Participate in scoping the virtual experience to profile Māori and Indigenous Peoples during APEC 2021</li> <li>8. Participate in selection of Provider to deliver virtual/digital content.</li> <li>9. Provide strategic guidance of digital content production eg draft edits.</li> </ol>
4. Media stories	Three stories for each meeting cluster for media that showcase the diversity, vibrancy and sophistication of Māori economic activity globally	Delegates, international & domestic media	APEC member economies see the potential of Indigenous economies across the APEC agenda	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>10. Provide advice on media stories, people and initiatives to profile.</li> </ol>
5. Quarterly newsletter & web page	Stories of Māori participation in APEC events and a dedicated webpage to keep Māori and Indigenous Peoples informed of APEC and Indigenous activity	Māori	Māori learn about APEC's purpose and Indigenous activities happening in & around APEC	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>11. Recommend collateral and stories to feature in APEC Māori Communications.</li> </ol>
6. Cultural content	Content for each APEC meeting cluster to show the cultural customs, traditions and practices of Māori in a virtual developed with mana whenua	Delegates	Delegates experience authentic NZ hosting and see a partnership model in action	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>12. Advice on cultural content and Māori entities to work with.</li> </ol>
7. Indigenous participation in APEC events	Māori are able to invite other Indigenous Peoples to participate in the CEO Summit and VOF	Indigenous People from APEC economies	Indigenous Peoples from other economies are funded to participate in key events	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>13. Participate in relevant APEC events</li> <li>14. Recommend networks and relevant Indigenous participants.</li> </ol>
8. Indigenous to Indigenous Dialogue	A Crown-Māori collaboration to test the appetite and value of an online forum led by Māori, for Indigenous Peoples, in the Asia-Pacific region	Māori, Indigenous Peoples, APEC delegates	Indigenous Peoples leverage existing I2I and G2G networks to share economic experiences and collaborate	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>15. Select kaupapa for Indigenous Dialogue</li> <li>16. Lead, plan and deliver an Indigenous Dialogue.</li> </ol>
9. Resource kit	Resource kit for APEC NZ Chairs and delegates to draw on Māori culture, te reo and tikanga.	NZ Inc delegates	NZ delegation able to deliver culturally appropriate diplomacy	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>17. Contribute ideas to a resource kit for the NZ delegation.</li> </ol>
10. Analysis of Iwi Taketake Participation in APEC and IPECA through a Tikanga Māori lens	Ongoing participant assessment of Iwi Taketake in these processes against the Kaupapa in the MOU and reflecting the principles incorporated in the UNDRIP in relation to establishment of bodies to represent indigenous peoples, with particular reference to decision-making, gender, and rangatahi.	Māori	Dynamic reflections on what is being achieved through this process for Māori and Iwi Taketake across APEC	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>18. Process to be overseen by Ringa Raupa Rōpū</li> </ol>